

My Place Photography Competition

Entries for the 2024 competition are now open!

The deadline to submit entries is 12th January 2024.

The Scottish Civic Trust's My Place Photography Competition is a Scotland-wide built environment photography competition for school age young people.

It encourages young people to explore the buildings, architecture and archaeology in the places they live, and experiment with using photography as a means of investigation and creative expression.

Each year, entries to the My Place Photography Competition are honoured in an awards ceremony and there are prizes to be won!!

The Rules...

Entrants

- Each entrant may only submit one photograph.
- Entrants must be between the ages of 4-18.
- Family members of the judging panel may take part in the competition, but will not be eligible for prizes or awards.

Images

- Images must depict an element of Scotland's built environment.
- Portraiture or images of nature will not be accepted.
- The theme for 2024 is My Community. If you'd like some inspiration, take a look at our My Community document.
- Images can be colour or black and white.
- Images should be saved as .jpeg files.
- All images entered must be the original work of the entrant. If the image has been manipulated or edited then this must have been done by the entrant, not an adult.
- If a photograph contains the images of children below the age of 18, a parent or guardian must provide written permission. Participants are responsible for ensuring that this has been done.
